A friend got a call from VISA this week and Mastercard rang me on Thursday. It went like this: the person calling said “This is Carl Patterson and I’m calling from the Security and Fraud Department at VISA. My badge number is 2460. Your card has been flagged for an unusual purchase pattern, and I’m calling to verify. Did you purchase an item for 497 pounds 99 pence from a marketing company based in Ipswich?”

When you say 'No', the caller continues with “Then we will be issuing a credit to your account. This is a company we have been watching for some time: they have been falsely 1._____ a lot of people between 297 and 497 <sup>10</sup>_____ pounds. Most cards are flagged for purchases worth over 500 pounds. The credit will be sent to you at (they give you your address) before your next statement is sent out. Is the address correct?”

You say, “Yes”. The caller continues with this: “I will be starting a fraud investigation. If you have any questions, you should call the 0800 number given on your card and ask for the Security Department. You will need to 2._____ this control number”. They then give you a 6-digit number. After that, the caller says that he “needs to verify that you are in possession of your card” (this is where the scam takes place as up 3._____ they have requested nothing!). They then ask you to turn your card over. There are seven numbers; <sup>20</sup>_____ the first four are 1234 (or whatever - in any case, they already have these numbers). The next 3 are the security numbers that verify that you are in possession of the card (these are the numbers they are really 4._____, as these are the numbers you use when making Internet purchases to prove you have the card). “Read me the 3 numbers”. When you do, he says “That is correct. I just needed to verify that the card has not been lost or stolen and that you still have your card. Do you have any other questions? Don't 5._____ to call back if you do”.

You actually say very little and they never ask for or tell you the card number. But after we were called on Wednesday, we telephoned VISA within 20 minutes to ask a question. Are we glad we did! The REAL VISA security department <sup>30</sup>_____ told us it was a scam and in the last 15 minutes a new 6._____ 497.99 pounds HAD BEEN put on our card!

We made a real fraud report and closed the VISA card. They are issuing us with a new number.

THE REAL VISA/MASTERCARD DEPARTMENT STRESSED THAT THEY WOULD NEVER ASK ANYTHING ABOUT THE CARD 7._____ THEY ALREADY KNOW EVERYTHING ABOUT IT!
